

Dugdale Cleaning Ltd (trading as QCleaning Stockport)

Anti-bribery & corruption statement

At Dugdale Cleaning Ltd we are committed to the highest standards of openness and accountability in all of our affairs. We have a culture of honesty and integrity and will ensure that we do not commit theft, deception, bribery, corruption, money laundering or fraud for personal gain or to cause a loss to another party.

We will carry out the necessary risk assessments by checking the nature of any services we provide and how these come about.

If in the future, Dugdale Cleaning Ltd employ any staff to the franchise business, then we will ensure they are fully trained and aware of their obligations to report bribery or any attempts at bribery.

We will only deal with organisations and individuals that share our commitment to bribery prevention and will not tolerate any business that breaches their provisions relating to bribery prevention.

We will report any acts of bribery or corruption through the necessary channels.

We will review our activities and processes regularly and ensure we are continuing to adhere to the Bribery Act 2010 and Fraud Act 2006.
